

2016 Houston Area Organ Workshop

Presented by the Organ Department of the
Brigham Young University School of Music and the Houston Texas Stake

Saturday, June 25, 2016

8:00 a.m. – 1:20 pm

schedule subject to change without notice	Experiencing the Organ A track of classes for youth and young adults CHAPEL	Get Comfortable For new organists or those with some experience but little or no formal training CULTURAL HALL	Beyond the Basics For organists comfortable at the organ PRIMARY ROOM
8:00-9:00 a.m.	Workshop registration, light breakfast, and listening sessions Meet the Organ Listening Session: Tyler Boehmer Get Comfortable Listening Session: Brian Mathias Beyond the Basics Listening Session: Nora Hess
9:00-9:15	Opening Session (Chapel)
9:20-10:35 (1 hr 15min)	Introducing the Organ! A Tour of the “King of Instruments” Nora Hess	Pulling Out All the Stops: Organ Registration Basics Kymerly Stone	Inspiring Hymn Playing and Creative Hymn Registration Tyler Boehmer
10:40-11:10 (30 min)	Razzle & Dazzle Hear what the organ can really do! Tyler Boehmer	Inviting the Spirit: Effective Preludes and Postludes Kymerly Stone	Teaching LDS Organists Dr. Brian Mathias
11:15-12:00 (45 min)	Pedal Playing for Youth Nora Hess	Hymn Playing: How to Thrive, Not Just Survive Kymerly Stone	Creating Preludes/Postludes from the Hymnbook Dr. Brian Mathias
12:05-12:50 (45 min)	On the Bench Things YOU can do at the organ TODAY! Nora Hess	Fancy Footwork: Sure-fire Ways to Confident Pedal Playing Dr. Brian Mathias	Coping with Challenging Pedal Parts Kymerly Stone
12:55-1:20	Closing Session (Chapel)
1:30	Lunch in the Cultural Hall		